Synopsis :

About the Author Author, Eunice Lewis, an Executive Assistant by trade, has been writing for corporations for over 25 years. Up until high school, she received mediocre grades in English and History, and yet, she later excelled in writing and researching genealogy. She graduated with honors from American InterContinental University with a degree in Business Administration. She started writing personal short stories when beset by times of emotional distress. Eunice loves babies and toddlers, as well as the older kids who still have kind hearts, ability to be honest and their natural wit. She also enjoys helping them by coaching good manners, public behavior and staying safe. Eunice was born and raised in South Central Los Angeles with five siblings. She dabbles in several types of art, including sewing, graphic art, and painting. She now resides in Atlanta, Georgia, close to her two adult children. She strives for a better life for herself and continues her journey to find balance and authentic happiness.
